

ECO-UNESCO

Ireland's Environmental Education
and Youth Organisation

ECO-UNESCO YOUTH EMPLOYABILITY PROGRAMME

Supporting young people towards meaningful employment

Are you:

- Under 25?
- Looking for employment?
- Interested in gaining new skills?
- Looking for an inclusive and supportive environment?

ECO-UNESCO is Ireland's Environmental Education and Youth Organisation affiliated to the World Federation of UNESCO clubs, centres and associations (WFUCA) and is a QQI accredited registered provider. ECO-UNESCO is a registered Irish charity (Charity no. CHY 7225).

ECO-UNESCO

Ireland's Environmental Education
and Youth Organisation

ECO-UNESCO's Youth Employability Programmes are FREE to young people from diverse backgrounds who are looking to build the skills and confidence needed to progress on to sustainable employment.

WHAT WILL YOU GAIN FROM THIS?

- QQI training in:
Sustainable Development (Level 5) or
Eco-Community Development (Level 3)
- Field trips for hands on experience in the natural environment
- One-to-one mentoring and support
- A valuable work placement with a potential employer in your area of interest
- Guidance and advice on preparing your CV
- How to be successful in job interviews

To book your place or for more information

Contact: Triona Reid
E: yei@ecounesco.ie
M: 086 159 1946

W: www.ecounesco.ie
T: (01) 662 5491

Course date?

Where?